Tas Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 398 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 1.0in. An extraordinary novel based on the genuine texts of a man and woman who meet 25 years after breaking up and realise they are still in love In 2011, in real life, an ex-boyfriend came back to find me. A candlelit dinner later our lives had changed: the connection was instant and chemistry as electrifying as ever. It sounds simple, but it wasn't. He was getting divorced, in emotional torment and broke; I was happily married to a man I adored; both of us had young children; and we lived nearly three hours drive from one another. Natasha Jordache AFTER 25 YEARS is a love story with a difference. In the first book of a potential trilogy, married author Natasha Jordache has taken the texts she exchanged with a former lover and adroitly transformed reality - where lines were drawn - into a minute-by-minute fictional diary of a burgeoning, passionate and scorchingly sexy affair. Tom and Charlotte's witty on-screen communications are interspersed with descriptive, emotional and often heartbreaking narrative passages to offer a unique, organic, reflective, funny, sad and highly erotic account of an emerging love triangle with a surprise honesty element. You see, Cha tells her husband everything. Well, almost. This is a novel for anyone who believes in the power of love and hope. For anyone who's remembered an old flame and wondered what if. For anyone who has contemplated an affair. For anyone undergoing a midlife crisis. For anyone who's appalled by the concept of adultery and believes it's always morally reprehensible. And for anyone who will enjoy following the complexities and challenges of a 21st century contemporary romance where the mobile phone replaces a scented billet-doux. You won't be able to put...
