Dear Sir: I have the honor herewith to present my report as Commissioner of Immigration for the county of Bernalillo. It was with considerable diffidence that I commenced the work of preparing the same, as I thoroughly appreciated and felt full well the great responsibility resting upon me, of faithfully performing my duty, by fairly and impartially presenting to the public an accurate and true statement of the vast resources and various advantages of this, the largest and richest county of New Mexico; and the most serious question which confronted me at the commencement of my labours was how I could best accomplish the end desired, do the subject ample justice, and give accurate and reliable reports upon the divers products and resources of Bernalillo county. Primarily, I commenced by drafting a report myself, after obtaining all the information I could from many of the older citizens of the county, but found this to be unsatisfactory to me, and I feared it would prove so...
