Archdeacon Bardsley, now Bishop of Carlisle, was present, and in the course of his address said that the Bishop of Liverpool, Mrs. Ryle, and others warmly sympathized with the movement. The chairman moved the following resolution: --That this meeting warmly sympathizes with the proposal to address to her gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, on the occasion of the Jubilee, a memorial signed by the women of England, in favour of closing public-houses on Sunday; generally approves of the steps already taken, and earnestly desires that their noble efforts may be crowned with success; and hereby offers all the help in their power. Matthews) at the home-office, to lay before him the jubilee memorial to the...
