Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Notes on Colored Troops and Military Colonies on Southern Soil: By an Officer of the 9th Army If you should ask me for the type of an admirable soldier, I would present you with the Mulatto. It seems that he unites in himself, physically speaking, the perfection of both races. He possesses the symmetrical form of the white engrafted upon the incomparable frame of the negro, and contains all the elasticity, indifference and cheerfulness of the latter. Although the negro is sometimes very ingenious, he excels him in intelligence. He can subsist with very little and supports with ease the most trying marches. He possesses much of the instability of the negro as well as that great docility and impulsive power so necessary in a soldier. The Mulatto is like the Zouave who, by his gaiety and heroism, instilled spirit and life into the united armies before Sebastopol and so stamped his memory upon the legends of his country. The negro is like the Turco who, by the vigor of his fire, the irresistible energy...
