By Bruce Katz, Jennifer Bradley

Brookings Institution. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Metropolitan Revolution: How Cities and Metros are Fixing Our Broken Politics and Fragile Economy, Bruce Katz, Jennifer Bradley, Across the US, cities and metropolitan areas are facing huge economic and competitive challenges that Washington won't, or can't, solve. The good news is that networks of metropolitan leaders u mayors, business and labor leaders, educators, and philanthropists u are stepping up and powering the nation forward. These state and local leaders are doing the hard work to grow more jobs and make their communities more prosperous, and they're investing in infrastructure, making manufacturing a priority, and equipping workers with the skills they need. In The Metropolitan Revolution , Bruce Katz and Jennifer Bradley highlight success stories and the people behind them. New York City : Efforts are under way to diversify the city's vast economy Portland : Is selling the osustainabilityo solutions it has perfected to other cities around the world Northeast Ohio : Groups are using industrial-age skills to invent new twenty-first-century materials, tools, and processes Houston : Modern settlement house helps immigrants climb the employment ladder Miami : Innovators are forging strong ties with Brazil and other nations Denver and...
