

Country Houses and Seaside Cottages of the Victorian Era (Paperback)

By William T. Comstock

Dover Publications Inc., United States, 1990. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 302 x 239 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This fascinating book presents a series of 44 designs for vacation homes of varying styles and sizes, created over a century ago by a select group of New York and New Jersey architects. Many of them are two-story, and most were intended to be built on low-to-medium budgets. All of them reflect the ideals of comfort and charm and state-of-the-art technology of the Victorian period. The original publishers compiled a splendid variety of designs, presented them as seaside and country houses and included designs for a Victorian club house, pavilion, school house, and a small seaside chapel. A total of 200 illustrations including perspective views, front and side elevations, and first- and second-story floor plans depict these appealing designs. Occasionally the architects have specified construction materials and finishing details such as paint, color, and trim, and in all cases they have included the overall anticipated costs, which range from about $500 to about $9,000. The Victorians, of course, loved architectural embellishments of every kind, and it is no small part of the charm of this book to study the profusion...

Reviews

This ebook will be worth acquiring. It is actually written in basic phrases instead of hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
