Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Preferment; Or Ambition s Ladder, an Instructive Poem for Political Pupils: With Shining Examples From Real Life Explanatory, Apologetic and Cautionary. The design of this poem is to offer some discouragement to office-seeking and demagogueism, two of the greatest mischiefs that afflict this country. The reader will see at a glance that no parly purpose is intended to be answered. The author has no reliance on the efficacy of any political creed to produce a change of heart. It requires no discernment to perceive - and but little candor to confess - that there arc honest and sensible men, as well as rogues and blockheads, in all parties. Factions are not like wines in this: they grow worse with age. The putrifactive fermentation constantly goes on, until corruption becomes complete. We make no attempt, therefore, to represent any old party as pure in principles and faultless in practice. Since this Satire was written and finished, at least one person named in it has departed this life. The author never intended to assail the deceased; it was not convenient, however, to leave out one name and substitute another, nor was that deemed necessary, as it is believed that no injustice has been done by us either to the living or the dead. One word to the ladies; - they are warned in time not to examine these pages, which were really not intended for their perusal. Our little book, though it contains nothing positively wicked, no dainty and decently expressed libertinism or blasphemy, may be justly charged with some occasional indelicacy of phraseology; - but as the subject is not an attractive one to females, and...
