It was also in the conventicles of the men of the European revolution where the fantastic plan of campaign was worked out, which M. dUedom wished to force on General La Marmora in his famous dispatch of the 17th June; 68 in it he recommended making war thoroughly, to overturn the quadrilateral, to march along the Adriatic, to penetrate into Hungary, which would at once rise at the name of Garibaldi: we will thus strike Austria, 180 not at the extremities, but at the heart! As to the endeavor to form, under the orders of the refugee General Klapka, a legion composed of deserters from the Austrian army, the president of the Prussian council greatly wished to affirm before the chambers of Berlin, in his celebrated speech of the 16th January, 1874, that he had rejected with energy all those projects at the beginning of the war. It was not until after the battle of...
